

Family Promise of Knoxville values and celebrates the unique attributes, characteristics, and perspectives that make each person who they are. We believe our strength lies in our diversity among the broad range of people who volunteer, work, and are served by our organization. We consider diversity, equity, inclusion, and access a driver of our effectiveness and seek out diversity of participation, thought, and action. It is our aim, therefore, that our stakeholders reflect and embrace these core values.